

Musical Futures Workshops in Europe 2020

Interested in attending internationally recognised quality professional development in teaching music? Then read on for details of Musical Futures workshops in Europe during summer 2020

About Musical Futures:

Selected as one of the top 100 innovations in global education by Finnish education organisation HundrED in 2017, Musical Futures believes music learning works best when young people are making music, and when their existing passion for music is reflected and built-upon in the classroom.

Musical Futures was established in the UK in 2003 and is based on ground-breaking academic research on the real-world practices of popular and community musicians. Students in over 100 countries worldwide benefit from using Musical Futures approach.

About Musical Futures Workshops:

Musical Futures workshops are practical, hands on and designed for teachers to experience the approaches from the perspective of their learners.

Both one or two day workshop options will be available to introduce delegates to Musical Futures approaches which are designed for ages 8 to 14, complete with accompanying resources to enable teachers to discover how to engage students in whole class music making.

Delegates at Musical Futures Workshops Receive:

- Everything required for classroom use straight away - including teacher notes and class support materials all ready - FREE
- Expert guidance through a practical and enjoyable workshop(s)
- The chance to network with local teachers
