

JUST PLAY

Developing skills & knowledge through whole class music-making, this full day course offers practical music making exploring our popular and effective JustPlay resource in a variety of contexts

Tuesday 14th March 2023

10:00-15:00

Fred Longworth High School

Manchester

THIS COURSE IS DESIGNED FOR ANYONE TEACHING
MUSIC AT KS3
AND INCLUDES:

- A full day workshop with hands on practical activity
- A 12 month Premium membership of Musical Futures Online worth £149
- Tea/coffee and Light Refreshments

OVERVIEW

The JustPlay online resource is designed to provide a vibrant and authentic curriculum approach that engages students in whole class music making. The course will explore these interactive resources which support the development of musical knowledge and rhythmic awareness alongside instrumental skill development on a variety of instruments

AIMS OF THE DAY

- Explore ways to deliver outstanding lessons and ensure that students are fully engaged in lessons
- Build confidence in teaching drums, guitar, bass, keyboard and ukulele
- Examine curriculum and classroom approaches that ensure students are developing knowledge through immersion in practical activities
- Develop classroom approaches that provide a catalyst to involve all students, including disadvantaged groups in music making
- Learn how to build essential performance skills amongst students that will promote achievement and attainment in music

The session was delivered with a clear passion and enthusiasm for music making and its pedagogy, which was entirely infectious.

The resources have clearly had a huge amount of time spent on both their design and creation.

Genuinely a brilliant session, thanks for organising it!

£149

For more information and to book, visit:

<https://www.musicalfutures.org/events/just-play-140323>